ROUND 6

50. M. Sokolovsky vs A. Moiseyev, RD6, G2

Mark played here 18-22? and lost after 25x18, 15x22, 24-20, 11-15, 28-24 etc White Wins

Draw was still available after 3-7 (or 1-5 first), 31-26, 11-16, 26-22, 16-20, 4-8, 9-13, 8-4, 1-5, 4-8, 6-9, 8-3 (8-4, 12-16, 19x12, 14-17 Draw), 14-17* Draw

51-52. I. Martynov vs S. McCosker, RD6, G1

In this game I. Martynov made a losing move (diagram 51), but later S. McCosker missed a win in position on diagram 52.

Diagram 51. 2-7? as played in game, loses by 17-13*, but 2-6* is a nice draw after 30-26 (17-13, 19-24, 22-17, 14-18, 30-25, 10-15 etc Draw), 6-9*, 17-13, 10-15, 13x6, 14-18 Draw!

Diagram 52. Another good addition to missing collection: 7-11 WW, 7-10? Draw.

53. K. Layne vs R. King, RD6, G2

1-5, 1-6 and 2-6 is OK here, but 10-15? loses by 23-18, 14x23, 26x10, 7x14, 22-18 as played in game.

54. I. Karny vs T. Hehn, RD6, G1

White played here 18-15? to draw and missed a pretty win – 31-27, 16-20, 32-28* WW

55. T. Hehn vs I. Karny, RD6, G2

1-5? move was played in game and lost after 13x6, 2x9, 29-25 etc. Instead, 2-6 was correct.

56. L. Dyanibokwe vs V. Lapin, RD6, G2

Another “blunder masterpiece” – red played losing 31-27? here (10-14 is correct) and after 7-2, 10-14 draw was agreed!!! In fact: all white needed to do – continue 2-6/7 and red can resign.
