

FMJD World Cup 2018

Every player participating in an event included into the World Cup system gets World Cup points (WCP).

There is a two-separate world cup classification: man(open) and women's.

Women are calculated (by default) only for women's classification. Women can also be counted in World Cup Open, but it must be clearly declared before her first tournament in 2018 and it excludes her from women's classification.

Every player receives as world cup points the points scored in the tournament and the first 10 players receive extra bonus points.

The number of stars, the competition factor, for the event depends on the total prize money for the event.

Getting World Cup points

$$\text{WCP} = \text{bonus} + \text{factor} * \text{TP}$$

where:

TP – point scored in the tournament (not more than 2 per each game)

Bonus – bonus points for best 10 players, from place #1 to 10: 100, 70, 50, 40, 35, 30, 26, 24, 22, 20

Factor – depends on competition status.

One-star event<sup>1</sup> – factor 1, three stars events – factor =3, five stars event factor =5, seven stars even factor =10

Classification

Current score it is best 4 results from the current and previous year (2018 and 2017).

Criteria:

1. sum of World Cup points
2. number of 1st places
3. number of 2nd places
4. number of 3rd places
5. better result in last tournament
6. number of winning games

Intercontinental Cup

<sup>1</sup> Number of stars depends on prize money: 1 star – 2000€, 3 stars - 5000€, 5 - 10000€, 7 stars -30000€

This independent classification based on World Cup score for players with rating below 2200 (2050 for women) at the beginning of the previous year (or the the first valid rating in the two-year period for a player who starts without rating).

The winners

After last World Cup event, FMJD will announce and award winners of World Cup (open/women) and Intercontinental Cup (open/women).

Women tournaments

Organiser of each tournament has a choice:

1. Separate tournament for women and separate for man
2. One group and the following conditions:
  - a. women can win also prizes in open category (instead of this for women);
  - b. women are omitted when counting bonus point for World Cup (instead this who declared wish to be classify only in open category).

This choice must be clearly declared in FMJD Calendar since first time event has been announced.

World Cup event 2017 for classification 2018

1. Point will be recalculated with new formula (without multiplying bonus by factor).
2. Women will be not counted for open classifications. It means that bonus point will be counted for top-10 man not just top-10 in the tournament.
